2018 NEWSLETTER NO 5

To all members of NALG-NSW

Colin Philpot our 2018 Champion!

Our 2018 Championship event at the challenging Twin Creeks layout only attracted 26 participants. However, despite the dry conditions the course was in good order and in the process of being prepared for the NSW PGA Championships to be held in the near future.

The clear winner on the day was Colin Philpot with a very solid 81 strokes. Colin will be the first name on the new Championship board, dedicated to former secretary John Griffin, as the old board being completely full.

Results for the day were;

Stroke Winner	Colin Philpot	81
Stroke Runner-up	Paul Sproules	86 c/b
Net Winner	Bruce Richardson	72
Stableford Winner	Steve Lill	37 pts (off 4 handicap)

NTPs

2nd Alan Cox
17th Paul Sproules

The Tony Barr annual point score event progress following Twin Creeks

Warwick Stanwell	23
Bruce Richardson	20
Peter Aroney	18
Col Aldrick	16
Dennis Allen	14
Geoff Martin	14

With 2 events to go there is plenty of opportunity to get among the prizes.

Next Event:

The event at the highly rated Newcastle Golf Club at Stockton on October 18th will incorporate Mangrove Mountain members v The Rest with both lefties & righties involved. The Mountain men are keen to put a stake in the ground and win this inaugural event, so The Rest will need to be on their game.

National Championships:

For members participating in the National Championships I wish you well. I am disappointed that I cannot join you on this occasion to enjoy the golf and local produce. I look forward to reading about your successes.

Quote: Whoever said;" Practice makes perfect", obviously never played golf.

Enjoy your next round.
